Quotes

Yesterday is history, tomorrow a mystery. Today is a gift. That's why it's called the present.

Patriotism is not so much protecting the land of our fathers as preserving the land of our children ~ Jose Ortega & Gasset

Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom must undergo the fatigue of supporting it. ~ Thomas Paine

The soul would have no rainbow if the eyes had no tears.

Live as though you were to die tomorrow; learn as if you were to live forever.

The sun does not shine on us, but in us.

You will never know how much something or someone means until they are taken away from you.

Why do people with closed minds always open their mouths?

A people that expects to be ignorant and free expects what never was and never will be. ~ Thomas Jefferson

The only way for evil to triumph is for good people to do nothing. ~ Edmund Burke

Membership Vocational Presentations

During last weeks club assembly, a list was compiled for the next year of vocational presentations by club members. This promises to be a good way of better getting to know each other. Vocational talks should be approximately 5 minutes in length and should include an historic sketch of family, education, business achievements and services. Truth, as in the four way test should be observed. Some license is permissible. For example: If at one time you were a member of Jesse James's band, it's not necessary to say, "Well, I'm a desperado." You can say something like "I work in banks," or "I've done some railroad work." Quote ~ Roy Blount Additional vocational presentations may be scheduled on the third Tuesdays for new members.

Club Member to Member Coordinator

Cy Tennery is the Club Coordinator for member to member concerns. He is not the general communications person. Those items for general dissemination should be sent to the Spoke contact. He can be reached by email tenneryj@sbcglobal.net or by phone at 816-616-5270(cell), 816-795-0781(home).
